

Student Answer Sheet

Subject: Artificial Intelligence

Definition:

Artificial Intelligence is the simulation of human intelligence processes by computer systems, including learning, reasoning, and self-correction. It enables tasks like speech recognition, visual perception, and decision-making.

Body:

(No answer provided)

Conclusion:

AI is reshaping industries and society. Ethical concerns around bias and privacy must be addressed through responsible, transparent AI development.